Title: Fun with Probability

Abstract: In ISI we learn probability as a vehicle for describing/modelling stochasticity. In one of the early demonstrations, second to be precise, of application of probability to combinatorics Erdos obtained lower bounds to Ramsey numbers. We wish to discuss that. If time permits we will discuss the first application of probability to combinatorics. As the title suggests this talk is accessible to M.Stat students.

Tea/Snacks will be served after the talk.

Please forward this notice to anyone who you think may be interested.
